A personal message from BLUR
My motivation for being a Cryos International donor

1. Motivation for becoming a donor
I wanna become a donor so I could help those potential parents out there, become good parents. Help them with sharing their surplus of love to a potential child.
I'm also a poor student. So I saw this as a win/win situation. I believe that children should have parents that wants them, and if I can help couples succeed in that, I would be honored.

2. Personal message to kid/family:
Hello dear child/family. I know your not existing child
The moment I'm writing these words.
But I wanna leave you some thoughts. I'm so happy if I could help with a little help from your parents, bringing you this unique gift called life.
I want you to know that I'm their for you, if you need help or have questions etc.
But most importantly is who raised you. They have what is most important for you... love!
I want you all to succeed in life. So remember to be happy! Aristotle wrote "Everything we do - we do to become happy." The average life is 650.000 hours, so spend it wisely.

3. Other informations about me:
I would love to meet all of you some day.
If I'm hopefully still alive.

Love and wisdom 🤗
